- Please make use of French quotation marks pointing towards each other (»...«).

The text is divided into chapters and subchapters with Roman and Arabic numerals, each with a dot.: I., I.1., I.2., II., III., III.1., III.2. etc. without a blank between the Roman and Arabic numerals.
- The structure points have meaningful headings.
- Hyphens indicating time spans are to be set as long dashes.
- Please do not use spaces before and after slashes (MYNORS/THOMSON; 1091/1120).
- Annotation numbers are to be set in superscript within the main text (without full stops or brackets), always preceding punctuation marks.

III. Annotations

Abbreviations within the annotations as well as the spelling of locations and places of publication should correspond to the language of the respective article.

- Citations should conform to the following pattern: Name_Surname,_Title._Subtitle_Series title in brackets,_place of publication_year,_page (for examples see IV.). Separations between the title, subtitle as well as between multiple series titles are always to be indicated with a full stop, also für English language contributions. Colons are only to be used when citing journals or collected volumes, namely after »in« as in the following: XYZ, in: DA 69 (2013), pp. 1–10.
- First mentions of authors and editors should appear in full-length. Surnames are to be put in SMALL CAPITALS (please do not use capital letters, underlinings etc.).
- Repeated citations should mention the surname of the author (in small capitals), followed by a short title consisting of the first noun with reference to the first full citation in brackets (as n. 14.), page.
- English titles use capital letters for adjectives and nouns.
- Editors of collected volumes should be specified by using »ed.« following the title.

- Multiple authors or editors are to be separated by slashes without spaces.
- Page numbers should be abbreviated by using »p. or pp.« for page/pages; volume numbers should be indicated by Arabic numerals.
- Several pages are to be marked precisely (pp. 11–12). Series titles and volume numbers are to be cited without »=« or commas in curved brackets after the title and before the place and year of publication.
- From the second edition onwards, edition numbers are to be put in superscript preceding the year of publication.
- Multiple places of publication are to be separated by slashes without spaces. Please do not use a comma in between the place and year of publication.
- For journals and series titles, please make use of the scribal abbreviations of the ›Deutsches Archiv für Erforschung des Mittelalters‹: <http://www.mgh.de/fileadmin/Downloads/pdf/DA-Siglenverzeichnis.pdf>; all other titles should be cited in full-length.
- A journal's year of publications is to be denoted after the volume number in brackets.
- Major collections of sources are to be formally treated like series.
- Entries in encyclopedias are to be treated like articles in journals.
- Online books and articles are treated like monographs and articles in journals respectively. The date of retrieval should figure behind the URL in brackets.
